

$^{34}\text{Al-1}$

The 22.1 ms isomer of  $^{34}\text{Al}$  was first observed in 2012 by F.Rotaru et al. at GANIL, Caen, France (2012Ro25).

2012Ro25 F. Rotaru, F. Negoita, S. Grevy, J. Mrazek et al., Phys. Rev. Lett. 109, 092503 (2012).

Please cite this abstract as: “FRIB Nuclear Data Group, Discovery of Nuclides Project, Isomer Database, doi:10.11578/frib/2572219”