

$^{235}\text{U-2}$

The 3.6 ms isomer of ^{235}U was first observed in 2007 by A.Oberstedt et al. at the Institute for Reference Materials and Measurements, Geel, Belgium (2007Ob02).

2007Ob02 A. Oberstedt, S. Oberstedt, M. Gawrys, and N. Kornilov, Phys. Rev. Lett. 99, 042502 (2007).

Please cite this abstract as: “FRIB Nuclear Data Group, Discovery of Nuclides Project, Isomer Database, doi:10.11578/frib/2572219”